

Session 2: Controlability of the Navier-Stokes and related systems

Chairman: J.-P. PUEL

This working session is devoted to make a presentation of some recent results and open questions concerning the control of some equations from fluid mechanics. In particular, we will be concerned with the local and global controllability of the Navier-Stokes equations.