

SOME NEW RESULTS IN CONVEX SUBDIFFERENTIAL CALCULUS

Marco Antonio López Cerdá

University of Alicante

A general formula for the optimal set of a relaxed minimization problem is provided in terms of the approximate minima of the data function. This new formula is applied to derive explicit characterizations for the subdifferential mapping of the supremum function of an arbitrary family of convex functions. Various applications to the ϵ -subdifferential calculus are also given.